The chairman assigned the moderator of the meeting. Moderator invited Mr. Niteepong Techamontrikul Chief Financial Officer. To report the operating results for the year 2024 as follows: 1) Statement of Financial Position 2) Statement of Comprehensive Income 3) Analysis of Operating Results.

1. Statement of Financial Position Assets as of the end of 2024 decreased from 2,490 million baht to 2,176 million baht, decrease of 314 million baht. The significant decrease in items was Inventories decrease by 223 million baht, Accounts Receivable and Other Receivable 51 million baht, Plants, and Equipment 42 million baht, Long-term loans 9 million baht, Right of use assets 6 million baht and A significant increase in cash and cash equivalents by 19 million baht.

2. Liabilities of 2024 decreased from 1,672 million baht to 1,439 million baht, decrease of 233 million baht. The significant decrease items were Short-term borrowings from financial institutions 402 million baht, Accounts payable and other payable 48 million baht, Lease liabilities 7 million baht and A significant increase in Long-term borrowings from financial institutions 187 million baht, Short-term loan from related party 30 million baht, Contract liabilities 7 million baht. Overall, the company increased its inventory utilization and restructured short-term debt into long-term form financial institutions. Cash flow was primarily used to reduce outstanding liabilities, resulting in significant decreases in both assets and liabilities.

3. Performance of the Income Statement In 2024, the company's overall performance improved. Sales revenue increased, primarily driven by the finished leather business segment. Although sales volume declined, the average selling price rose, resulting in higher gross profit. The safety footwear and personal protective equipment segment also showed signs of recovery and improved performance. Total revenue increased from 1,841 million baht to 1,944 million baht, representing an increase of 103 million baht or 6%. Production costs decreased, mainly due to better alignment between raw material procurement and customer orders, which contributed to an increase in gross profit. As a result, the company was able to reduce its net loss compared to the previous year.

The company's revenue is divided into three main business segments: finished leather products, Tanning leather, and the safety footwear and personal protective equipment. Through effective pricing and cost management, the company has maintained its gross profit margin. Unnecessary expenses were reduced, and operational efficiency was emphasized, resulting in a 15 million baht decrease in administrative expenses. Meanwhile, selling expenses increased by 10 million baht, primarily due to higher transportation and commission costs. When comparing sales and expenses, the trend shows a consistent alignment between revenue growth and related costs.

The company's net loss has improved, with the net profit margin increasing from -9.25% to -4.14%. As part of its strategic adjustment, the company has focused on aligning leather procurement more closely with customer orders, which is expected to further reduce costs in this area. Return on Assets (ROA) improved from -6.84% to -3.70%, while Return on Equity (ROE) rose from -20.83% to -10.90%. Despite these improvements, the company still reported a net loss and, as a result, will not be paying dividends this year.

And invited Mr. Puvasith Wongcharoensin, Chief Executive Officer. To report the business's overview business operations in the past year of CPL Group.

For the year 2025, the management plans to closely align leather procurement with prevailing market conditions. Additionally, the company will continue to monitor developments related to trade tariffs, particularly analyzing the potential impact of tariffs imposed by the United States. Although the company does not export its products directly to the U.S., most of its products are exported to China and Vietnam, where they are used in the production of branded footwear. As such, indirect impacts from U.S. trade policies remain a concern.

In the safety business footwear and personal protective equipment, the company faces challenges from the influx of low-priced products from China, which has intensified domestic price competition. The management remains vigilant and committed to closely monitoring the situation in order to respond effectively and maintain competitiveness.

Moderator has reported the award and the results of the assessment of the Company for the year 2024 as follows:
